EYV 2011 Alliance September meeting

The 36 participants representing 26 EYV 2011 Alliance member organisations met at the European Economic and Social Committee Brussels in September. Participants discussed the second draft of the Policy Agenda on Volunteering in Europe (P.A.V.E) and came up with key recommendations and questions to put forward to be considered by the EYV 2011 Alliance Working Groups. The future of the EYV 2011 Alliance was also discussed as were the arrangements for the European Citizens' Prize Award ceremony that was scheduled for the following day. Read the full report.

EYV 2011 Alliance Working Groups

The EYV 2011 Alliance Working Groups had a fourth meeting in September 2011. The 6 working groups established by the EYV 2011 Alliance involve more than 100 experts, many of them volunteers themselves. The European Policy Agenda on Volunteering is scheduled to be approved at the EYV 2011 Alliance SG meeting on 17 November 2011 and will be presented to policy makers at the EC EYV 2011 closing conference in Warsaw on 1st December 2011. ## EYV 2011 Alliance- Membership Profile

International Cultural Youth Exchange (ICYE) is an international non-profit youth volunteer exchange organisation founded in 1949. The ICYE Federation has 40 member and partner countries worldwide, of which 13 are European based national organizations. ICYE fosters youth mobility and intercultural learning through short and longterm voluntary service activities as well as study visits, training courses and issue seminars. ICYE's programs, which are founded on principles of global education and intercultural learning, aim to address social and educational needs of today's youth, by enhancing young people's sensitivity towards social and cultural differences, as well as their self confidence and problem solving abilities. The Euclid Network's membership includes leaders of volunteering organisations and organisations that manage volunteers. On estimate, Euclid members collectively manage 1.2 million volunteers. Using a 'trickle down' methodology, Euclid Network (EN) engages in volunteering through developing leaders and organisations in a sustainable way, who are then able to better manage and provide opportunities for Europe's volunteers. Recognising the importance of volunteering Euclid Network have developed several services and resources to develop volunteering across Europe: international job-shadowing exchanges where third sector leaders volunteer at another organisation to develop their leadership. ### EYV 2011 "City Focus" - Lippstadt-Uden, Germany-Netherlands

Cross-border volunteer exchange Uden-Lippstadt

25 volunteers from Uden (Noord-Brabant, Netherlands) travelled in October 2011 to Lippstadt (North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany). The volunteers were reunited in the framework of the same voluntary service project which took place in Uden in May 2011. The volunteers committed to various tasks such as a campaign for UNICEF, restoring gardens and planting trees in a youth centre, taking part in an afternoon for the elderly, renovating the local animal shelter, raising money by selling waffles on the market...etc. These exchanges were organised in the framework of the European Year of Volunteering.

Although the exchange was initially designed as a single action, many volunteers found it was a good idea for this successful project to continue in the coming years. The project was the result of a collaboration between the two cities building upon 40 years of friendship. "In brilliant sunshine all participants spent an exciting day in Lippstadt. New contacts were made and others strengthened. But in the first place the meeting focused on the voluntary work and the pleasure to engage with others." concluded the organisers. Read more.
