Story from the field

Linda was sent by ADICE to the local NGO WEFOCO in Kenya as an EU Aid Volunteer in Community-based development.

WEFOCO is working with several women groups registered in Shianda on strengthening their skills and abilities in income-generating activities.

“...one of my initiatives was to provide trainings on simple record keeping which were based on examples the groups are familiar with. It was a really nice experience to witness how enthusiastic the members were about sharing their own examples and what they are planning to do with their profit as a group as well as individuals...”
