

Service-Learning Upscaling Social Inclusion for Kids (SLUSIK)
Final Conference
AGENDA
18 November 2022

“Service-Learning in European context - challenges and opportunities”

The final European Conference for the SLUSIK project will involve decision makers, students, Higher Education Institutions, schools and organisations. We will introduce the project results, in particular the Policy Brief and the Service Learning curricula and Toolkit and the evidence collected as to their effectiveness. The potential of the Community of Practice will also be presented. This event will serve as both, the closure of the project and the culmination of advocacy activities, will provide final feedback to be gained on the overall success of the project, lessons learned and recommendations for the future and follow-up actions contributing to the sustainability of the project.
